friends, too, and shows on TV. Shaggy, why do you and Scooby like food so much? Why do you get so scared? Why do you want to get out of there so soon?

Shaggy and Scooby love to eat everything—and the sooner they get away from those spooky ghosts, the sooner they can get back to yummy eating!

Marty Dees

Dear Creator of Scooby-Doo,

I have always watched your show since I first saw it. Your show has really improved my grade in trick questions. In fact, if you need to trick someone, here's a good question: Just ask, What would you take if you had to live on a deserted island? (a) A lifetime supply of Pop Tarts? or (b) Books? Answer: Pop Tarts would become stale. Trick Question!

Glad we could help improve your grade, Marty—and thanks for the suggestion. I think I'll go try that one on some of the other comic-book editors here at DC.

Dear Scooby and Gang,

I love your comics! I think they're great—especially #9! I like to watch your show a lot! I drew pictures of you and the gang (I also included the Mystery Machine). I hope you like them.

P.S. Like my multicolored pen?

Houston, we don't have room to print all of your drawings—whew! You drew over 11 renditions of the gang! But we just had to print the first drawing we ever got of the Mystery Machine!
